

ALASKA PENINSULA AREA

The Alaska Peninsula Area includes all Pacific Ocean waters of Alaska between a line extending southeast (135°) from the tip of Kupreanof Point and the longitude of the tip of Cape Sarichef, and all Bering Sea waters of Alaska east of the longitude of the tip of Cape Sarichef and south of the latitude of the tip of Cape Menshikof. These regulations apply on waters within or adjacent to the Izembek National Wildlife Refuge, Alaska Peninsula National Wildlife Refuge, Alaska Maritime National Wildlife Refuge, and Aniakchak National Monument and Preserve. [See map 9 on preceding page.]

ALASKA PENINSULA AREA CUSTOMARY AND TRADITIONAL USE DETERMINATIONS
Area	Species	Determination
Alaska Peninsula Area	Halibut	Residents of the Alaska Peninsula Area and the communities of Ivanof Bay and Perryville.
	All other fish in the Alaska Peninsula Area	Residents of the Alaska Peninsula Area.

Special Provisions:

NO SUBSISTENCE FISHING PERMIT REQUIRED. You can take fish at any time without a subsistence fishing permit, except salmon, rainbow/steelhead trout, or char, unless restricted in the following regulations or by Special Action. If you incidentally take rainbow/steelhead trout, or char in other subsistence net fisheries or through the ice, you may retain them for subsistence purposes.

You may take salmon, trout and char only with a subsistence fishing permit. You may take no more than 250 salmon for subsistence purposes, unless otherwise specified on your subsistence fishing permit.

You may take halibut for subsistence purposes only by a single hand-held line with no more than two hooks attached. The daily harvest limit for halibut is two fish, and the possession limit is two daily harvest limits. You may not possess sport-taken and subsistence-taken halibut on the same day.

Recordkeeping/Permit. You must keep a record on the reverse side of the permit of subsistence-caught fish, and complete the record immediately upon taking the fish. This permit record must be returned no later than October 31.

Regulations:

You may take salmon at any time, except:

- Within 24 hours before and within 12 hours following each open weekly commercial salmon fishing period within a 50-mile radius of the area open to commercial salmon fishing.
- As specified on a subsistence fishing permit.

ALASKA PENINSULA AREA

Regulations (continued):

You may take salmon by seine, gillnet, rod and reel, or with gear specified on a subsistence fishing permit.

You may not subsistence fish for salmon in the following waters:

- Russell Creek and Nurse Lagoon and within 500 yards outside the mouth of Nurse Lagoon.
- Trout Creek and within 500 yards outside its mouth.

You may take fish other than salmon by gear listed in this part unless restricted by a subsistence fishing permit.

Gillnet Provisions

You may not use a set gillnet exceeding 100 fathoms in length.

CHIGNIK AREA

The Chignik Area includes all waters of Alaska on the south side of the Alaska Peninsula enclosed by 156° 20.22' W. Longitude (the longitude of the southern entrance to Imuya Bay near Kilokak Rocks) and a line extending southeast (135°) from the tip of Kupreanof Point. These regulations apply on waters within or adjacent to the Alaska Peninsula National Wildlife Refuge, Aniakchak National Monument and Preserve, and Alaska Maritime National Wildlife Refuge. [See map 9 on page 32, combined with Alaska Peninsula Area map.]

CHIGNIK AREA CUSTOMARY AND TRADITIONAL USE DETERMINATIONS
Area	Species	Determination
Chignik Area	Halibut, salmon and fish other than rainbow/steelhead trout	Residents of the Chignik Area.

Special Provisions:

NO SUBSISTENCE FISHING PERMIT REQUIRED. You can take fish at any time without a subsistence fishing permit, except salmon, rainbow/steelhead trout, and char, or as restricted in the following regulations or by Special Action. If you take rainbow/steelhead trout incidentally in other subsistence net fisheries, you may keep them for subsistence purposes.

You may take salmon, trout and char only with a subsistence fishing permit. You may take no more than 250 salmon for subsistence purposes unless otherwise specified on the subsistence fishing permit.

You may take halibut for subsistence purposes only by a single hand-held line with no more than two hooks attached. The daily harvest limit for halibut is two fish and the possession limit is two daily harvest limits. You may not possess sport-taken and subsistence-taken halibut on the same day.

Recordkeeping/Permit. You must keep a record on the permit of subsistence-caught fish, and complete the record immediately upon taking the fish. This permit record must be returned no later than October 31.

Regulations:

You may take fish other than salmon by gear listed in this part unless restricted under the terms of a subsistence fishing permit.

You may take salmon by seines, gillnets, rod and reel, or with gear specified on a subsistence fishing permit, except that in Chignik Lake you may not use purse seines.

- Chignik River/Black and Chignik Lake areas. You may not take salmon in the Chignik River, upstream from the ADF&G weir site or counting tower, in Black Lake, or any tributary to Black and Chignik Lakes.
- Chignik Area: If you hold a State commercial fishing license, you may not subsistence fish for salmon from 48 hours before the first State commercial salmon fishing opening in the Chignik Area through September 30.